

I think the best routes to Stanford are:

From the South:

Get on 101 Northbound.

Exit Embarcadero Road West (also marked Stanford University) This exit has 3 off ramps, the last being Embarcadero West.

Continue on Embarcadero through El Camino where it changes name to GALVEZ ST.

From Galvez there are at least 5 parking lots -

To enter the aquatics complex from Avery Mall:

Turn left on Nelson Rd (the 1st left):

1. There is parking immediately on the right in the "TRACK HOUSE souvenir shop parking lot.
2. A little further along there is parking on the left in the VARSITY LOT (the Varsity lot may be partially blocked due to basketball camps).
3. Beyond the Varsity Lot to the LEFT is the overflow lot (also known as the tailgate lot for football games).

To Enter the Aquatics complex from the South West entrance by Maples Pavilion:

Continue on GALVEZ to CAMPUS DRIVE EAST and make a LEFT.

Maples Pavilion will be on your left (about 4 buildings)

Immediately after Maples Pavilion there will be a parking lot on your Left and Right. Permits are not required on Saturday.
